The background consists of numerous overlapping, semi-transparent hexagons in various shades of blue and purple, set against a solid black background. The hexagons are scattered across the frame, creating a textured, crystalline effect.

I NEED YOUR HELP!!!!!!

Historically the Wesley Center has housed a preschool program. We are working to bring the program back.

We need your help to turn this
