District President's Message

Hello beautiful women of the Arlington District United Methodist Women!

“Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways submit to him, and he will make your paths straight.”
Proverbs 3:5-6 (NIV)

“Trust in the Lord forever, for the Lord, the Lord himself, is the Rock eternal.” Isaiah 26:4 (NIV)

Does anyone else check the weather in the morning to know how to dress for the day ahead or check the traffic to see if you should take an alternate route? It's great to have these resources available to us. If only our life journey had these resources so we could know what God has planned for us. I share these two bible verses with you because they are ones that I hold close to my heart. They are reminders that as I enter and pass through events in my life I only have to look up and remember it's not meant for me to see the whole path. Every step is revealed to us in God's time - sometimes a few steps, sometimes a lot of steps and even sometimes only one step at a time. As I look back on the past four years that I have been privileged and blessed to represent all of you ladies on the Arlington District Team as the Membership Nurture & Outreach Coordinator and President I now see that only a few steps or even one step at a time could be revealed to me for me to understand everything I was capable of. I share this with all of you as a source of encouragement to not worry about how God will use you but rather TRUST that He only has good planned for you in this life and after. Thank you to all of you for your love and prayers and I will continue to hold you all in my prayers. God has special plans for you through your involvement in United Methodist Women.

As we approach Advent join us November 12th for our Mini Mission Encounter hosted by the outstanding women of Graham Road United Methodist Church. Deaconess Emma Samson will help us to dive deeper into Climate Justice, a UMW mission focus.

President

Angela Sokolowski

On January 28th please join all of your sisters in the Arlington District for Training Day: UMW Networking hosted by the amazing ladies at Andrew Chapel United Methodist Church. Bring your ideas and/or your questions and we will work together to grow with God our Rock eternal. (*NOTE: Snow Date February 4th)

Mark your calendars for March 10th – 11th and prepare yourself to be rekindled at our Spiritual Life Retreat hosted by the Arlington District UMW Team. The theme will be “The Right Clothes” - Colossians 3:12-15. Rev. Seoung Young Kim, District Superintendent of York River District, will be our guest speaker and helping to bring spiritual renewal to all of us. We will again this year stay at the Northern Virginia 4-H Educational Center in Front Royal.

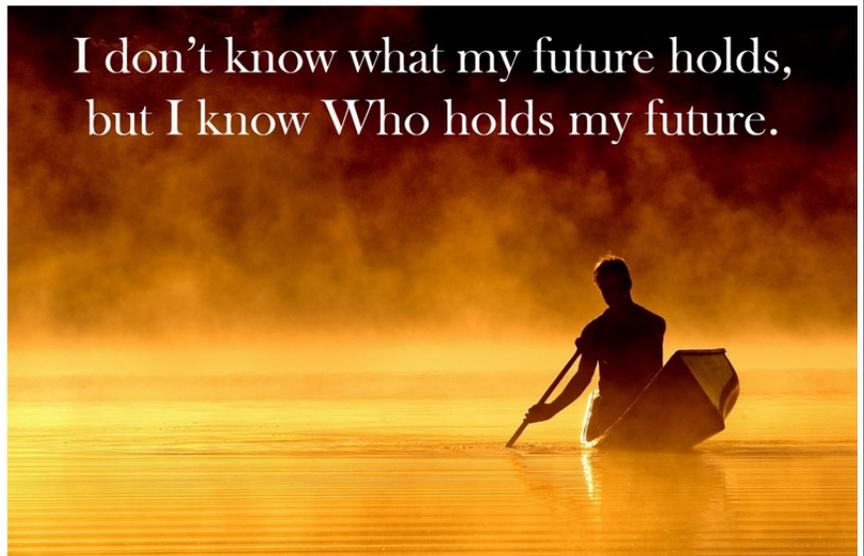

Also in the spring on Saturday, April 22nd join all of your Arlington District sisters for our annual Spring Prayer Breakfast hosted by the beautiful women at Vale United Methodist Church. Rev. Joanna Dietz, Minister of Mission and Service at Braddock Street UMC in Winchester, Virginia will enrich our spirituality as our guest speaker and enlightenment about community in mission.

As United Methodist Women we make a difference, and it is when we come together that we can stand taller, speak louder, and love more abundantly!

YOU make it Happen! Many blessings to all of you for answering God's calling in your life through United Methodist Women.

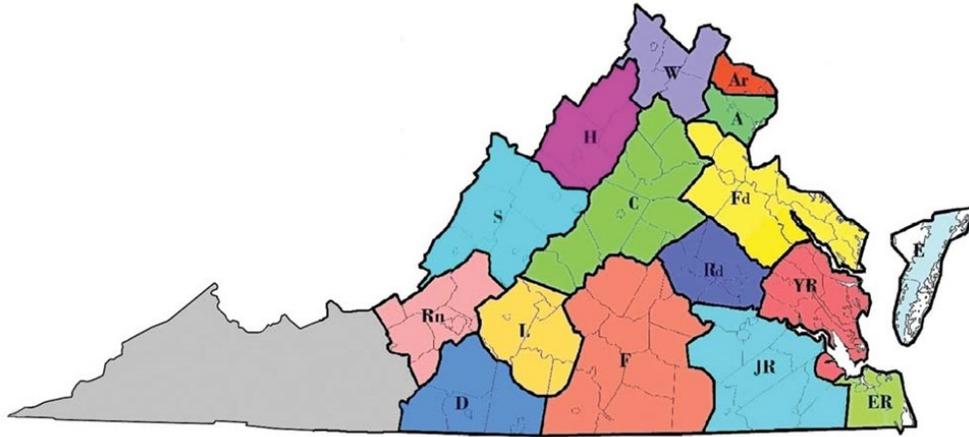

In Sisterly Love Always & Forever,
Angela Sokolowski

The 16 Districts of the Virginia conference:

A	Alexandria	55 churches	H	Harrisonburg	82 churches
Ar	Arlington	48 churches	JR	James River	83 churches
C	Charlottesville	74 churches	L	Lynchburg	89 churches
D	Danville	72 churches	Rd	Richmond	69 churches
E	Eastern Shore	52 churches	Rn	Roanoke	70 churches
ER	Elizabeth River	65 churches	S	Staunton	84 churches
F	Farmville	108 churches	W	Winchester	83 churches
Fd	Fredericksburg	74 churches	YR	York River	67 churches

I found the Conference UMW Annual Meeting full of information and inspiration. Hearing about what the other districts are doing, the number of active units they have, the number of attendees at their district meetings, the amount of money they give to The UMW made me feel happy and impressed for them, and a little concerned about the Arlington District. It also made me curious to really take a look at the 16 districts of the Virginia conference. We are by far the tiniest. What a blessing we have not to have to drive hundreds of miles to attend a district meeting!

Even though we are tiny, our giving matters. Please be sure and get your fourth quarter giving in by December 15. Remember two important things:

1. Money raised on behalf of the UMW needs to mainly (80%) go to The UMW.
2. Money raised on behalf of the UMW is not to be saved for a rainy day. Keep only enough money to get you through the first quarter of 2017 and send the rest in. Today is a rainy day for many of the people and missions the UMW supports.

Looking forward to seeing all of you on November 12. As you can see, all of our churches are conveniently located.

Membership Nurture & Outreach

Katy White

It's that time again! Time for membership reporting. Thanks to all of you who did a great job with the new online system last year. With the new system, the national reporting increased from 60% in 2014 to 89% in 2015! We will use it again this year as a great way to share the work of the Arlington UMW with the rest of the country.

If you need additional support, as well as more information about why we focus so much on reporting membership numbers, I offer these videos from the national office:

- Reporting and membership overview: <https://youtu.be/ZAZncrnL6t4>
- Completing the Census: <https://youtu.be/0ZRQ0I-7IMw>
- Membership Log: <https://youtu.be/HyfhJ9CDp4g> (this is a new feature that will help capture additional information about your unit and its mission interests.)
- Assembly 2018: <https://youtu.be/z5GLxFkPpjA>

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to give me a call at 804-937-5289.

Also, if you want to discuss ideas for increasing your unit's membership, I am happy to come and speak with your officers and members about how to spread the word of the Lord and invite new members to join you in mission.

All the best,
Katy

Singing God's Praises---No Matter What

Psalm 137: 4 How can we sing the songs of the Lord in a strange land?

The 44th Annual Meeting of the Virginia Conference of United Methodist Women was not just a business meeting but a spiritual transfusion. What better way to begin this process than a session of musical praise to God! This was provided by the Prasia (Praise) music ministry from the Philippines.

Prasia is an independent, inter-denominational, full-time music ministry composed of three female and two male singers with voices guaranteed to lift your thoughts toward heaven. The revenue raised supports Filipino missions.

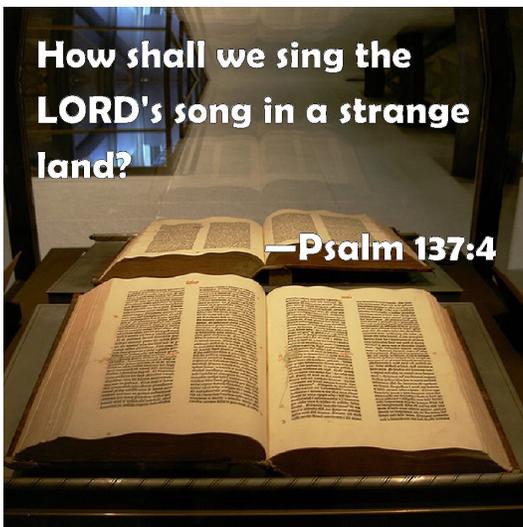

During their present tour of the United States the group met a serious challenge. In Colorado one of the singers who was driving a van had a rollover down a steep ravine. She suffered a concussion which left her unable to sing for several days. The group lost some of its technical equipment and the van. Fortunately, no one else was injured.

Listening to this story I was reminded of Psalm 137 in which the exiles in Babylon asked the question, "How can we sing the songs of the Lord in a strange land?" The grieving exiles ended their lament by remembering what God had done for them in the past. I have no doubt that Prasia did the same thing, for they continued to sing, uplifting and inspiring others.

A highlight of the concert was a trip down memory lane as we revisited Sunday school. We were invited to join in singing hymns of our youth such as "Jesus Loves Me This I Know" and "I've Got Joy Down In My Heart." We recreated the child-like joy of worshipping God with the innocence of our youth.

If we could rekindle this spirit of joy, our lives would truly be enriched. We do not cease praising God when troubles surround us. We remember the goodness of God and continue to sing His praises.

Hi Everyone,

The Holidays are fast approaching and life can get out of control. So, I am reminding you to think about ways you can pass on the blessings you have received to others. One way is to collect the cards and calendars we get in the mail or buy at the dollar store, and send them on to the Virginia Correctional Center for Women. Any cards except those with foil are ok. They can use stamps as well; these are a lot lighter to send in the mail. You can do this all year and send them any time. I like to look at thrift shops and not new shops, sometimes I will find cards for $2.00 a box. This is a great ministry because it helps the women keep in touch with their friends and family. It is also an item on the Living Into Our Purpose form. Send donations to: VCCW, Attention Karen Powel, 2841 River Road West, Goochland, Virginia 23063. During the Holidays and throughout the year UMW support many projects. Take a look at what you do and see how they support women, children and youth.

At our District Annual meeting this year we gave each Unit a copy of the new Program Book. So, if someone came from your unit they should have it. We will have them again at the Mini Mission Encounter, November 12, from 9 to noon, at Graham Road UMC, 2929 Graham Road, Falls Church. If you don't have yours yet come and pick it up. Using two programs from the Program Book is also another item on the Living Into Our Purpose form.

District Training Day is coming up January 28, at Andrew Chapel. I hope you will consider attending. It is not just for new officers. Anyone who wants to learn more about UMW and how we work to put Faith, Hope and Love into Action is welcome.

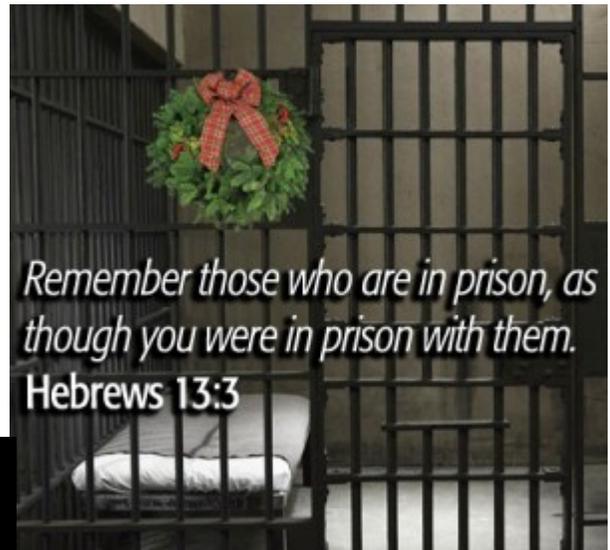

Blessings

ARLINGTON DISTRICT UMWMini Mission Encounter*November 12, 2016*9 a.m.—noon*Graham Road UMC
2929 Graham Road
Falls Church, VA*Topic: Climate Justice*Keynote Speaker: Emma Samson

Emma Samson is a Southeastern Jurisdictional Guide for the “Be Just, Be Green” Initiative.

The guides' roles are to:

Support and encourage you as you take steps towards more sustainable practices in your meetings, and

Inform the national office of resources needed to help local groups implement any or all of the 13 principles. (See next page for a list of the 13 principles.)

13 UMW Principles to Sustainability

▶ Principle 1: Accessibility

Ask if your meeting venue complies with the Americans With Disabilities Act (ADA), and ask the facility manager to show you how during your site inspection. When surveying meeting space possibilities, make sure rooms are accessible to people with disabilities.

▶ Principle 2: Affordability

Offer carpooling options for participants in order to provide no or low-cost transportation options for your event.

▶ Principle 3: Carbon Footprint

Choose a meeting venue that minimizes travel and encourage carpooling and/or public transportation through your registration process.

▶ Principle 4: Healthy Food and Beverages

Serve fair trade (and organic if possible) tea and coffee at your meeting.

▶ Principle 5: Just Economic Opportunities

Ask vendors, hotels and others you contract with to sign a statement attesting that they do not engage in or benefit from the use of child or slave labor or human trafficking.

▶ Principle 6: Local Solidarity

Use the local solidarity checklist to assess if there are opportunities to be in mission at your event.

▶ Principle 7: Multigenerational Inclusion

Offer child care to participants, making sure that at least two unrelated adults are present at all times with the children.

▶ Principle 8: Paper Use

Ensure any printed items are double-sided and duplicated on paper made with post-consumer recycled content.

▶ Principle 9: Racial Justice

Include a statement in your contracts, speaker agreements, attendee code of conduct, and, if relevant, exhibitor terms and conditions that expresses your intention to host an event that combats all forms of racism and oppression.

▶ Principle 10: Toxin Reduction

Be creative and wise about nametags. Invite participants to bring their own nametag (reusing one they already have). If you are supplying nametags, if possible reuse ones you already have. Be careful of the use of ribbons and other petroleum-based enhancements. If you need to buy more, choose a type that does not use PVC and eliminates unnecessary components like holders and pouches. Encourage attendees to turn in their name badge for reuse.

▶ Principle 11: Waste Reduction

Choose a meeting venue that provides recycling for plastic, paper, glass and metal.

▶ Principle 12: Water Use

Avoid or eliminate the use of individual bottled water. Encourage attendees to bring their own bottle for refilling and provide pitchers of water or bubblers and promote use of water fountains.

▶ Principle 13: Well-being of Participants

Provide a quiet space for meditation and prayer at the event. This may be a physical space and/or formal times on the agenda that are set aside for this kind of activity.
